Edward Hembree, et al

vs

Mattie Hembree, et al

No. 1271.

At the August term, 1915, of the Chancery Court at Crossville, the following lands involved in the above styled consolidated causes were ordered sold by the Clerk and Master, to wit: One tract, containing 89 1/2 acres, being a part of the old home place and known as the James W. Hembree old home place and fully described by metes and bounds as the second tract in a report made by Commissioner James Smith, A. J. McGuire and G. W. Toney to this court. Said report is on file in my office and is referred to for a full description.

Second tract: Containing about sixty acres, about one mile south of Pomona, Tenn., on both sides of the Memphis-to-Bristol Highway, bounded north by Barnes, east by Wilt, south by Matthews and Dayton, and west by Shroyer.

Third tract, being three lots in the town of Pomona, Tennessee, fronting 150 feet on the Crossville road, same tract conveyed by J. N. Myers and wife to J. W. Hembree, recorded in book 9, page 120, register's office at Crossville.

The above tracts of land will be offered for sale at the court house door in Crossville to the highest and best bidder on the 29th day of December, 1915, for one-third cash, balance six and twelve months, notes bearing interest, retaining a lien on the land and personal security will be required of the purchaser.

Pomona

In an article appearing in the Chattanooga News of Nov. 20, concerning the Cumberland Mountain Kinco, a co-operative association recently formed in Grundy county, was the following statement: "The cultivated acres of Grundy county produce more per acre than any county in East Tennessee except Hamilton and Cumberland." The same paper of Nov. 25, in speaking of the Herbert Downum and the proposed tubercular hospital to be erected somewhere on the plateau, pays the following tribute to the Cumberlandians: "The air is pure, filled with ozone, and inspires energy and activity. Dr. E. M. Wight, a prominent and eminent physician of this city, some forty years ago pronounced this Cumberland tableland as a country free from consumption." What two greater boons could we desire—health and prosperity free to all who diligently seek it. A little more faith, and a little more earnest effort on the part of every farmer to improve his own land, instead of standing aside criticizing "Farmer Jones'" methods on his farm is our country's urgent need.

The many friends of Maxwell Clark, who were grieved at the serious accident to his foot two weeks ago, are now gratified to know that the injury was not as serious as was at first feared, and it is the earnest hope of all the community that he will soon be able to be out again. He and his mother are now in Crossville where he can have the constant care of the physician until all danger is past.

Mrs. Donnelly, of Los Angeles, who is spending the winter with her mother, Mrs. Shellito, in Crossville, was the guest last week of Mrs. Frank Graham. Mrs. Donnelly spent her childhood on the Shellito farm near Pomona, and is welcomed back to this community by many friends.

The baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Barnwell, who has been quite ill with diphtheria, is now recovering.

Mrs. Dibrell and daughter, Miss Betty, are the guests of relatives in Bon Air.
